

Practical 6

Gynoecium, fruit and seed

Gynoecium

1. Pistil 1, or no. of pistils, syncarpous (fused) or apocarpous, (free)
2. no. of carpels. In figures to be determined from the T.S. ovary & to the no. of loculi when the placentation is axile and to the no. of placentae when particular no. of carpellary.
3. number of loculi. no. - locular,
4. the placentation. axile, parietal, Cor marginal when monocarpellary, basal, pendulous or free central,
5. the no. of ovules in each locule (to be determined from both the T.S. & the L.S. ovary),
6. the style - long or short, slender or stout, hairy,
7. the stigma - shape, number i.e. - fid, - lobed,
8. the disc - intrastamina, (within the androecium) or extrastamina, (outside the stamens),
9. inferior or superior

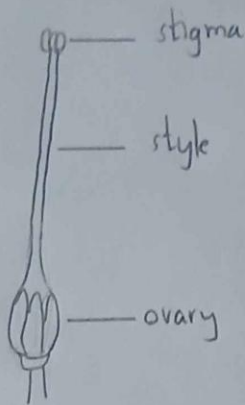

Fruit

1. Simple, or aggregate, or multiple,
2. type. pod or legume, or capsule, etc.,
3. colour,
4. taste, edible, inedible.

Seed

1. No. of seed per fruit
2. albuminous or exalbuminous
3. single or two cotyledons,
4. position, shape and size of embryo,
5. cotyledon straight or curve

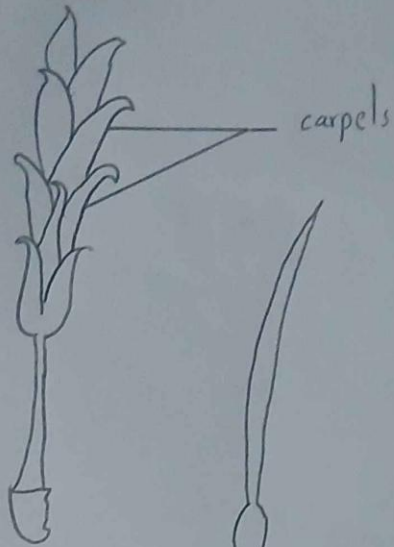

Gynoecium

Syncarpous pistil

Apocarpous pistil

Simple stigma

Bi-fid stigma

Simple pistil with free stigma

Free styles

Free ovaries

Free ovaries

Globose stigma

Capitate stigma

Disc stigma

Types of Placentation

marginal

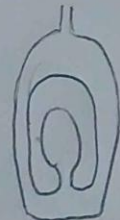

Axile

Free central

Parietal

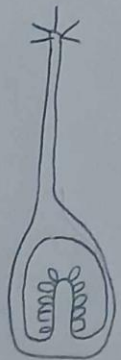

Basal

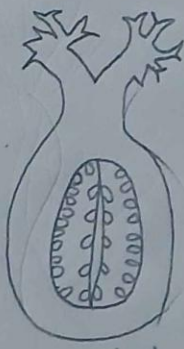

Pendulous

Axile

Free central

Parietal

8/14