

Practical - VI

Study, draw, label and write short note on the following External feature of Uromastix (Lizard)

Phylum - Chordata

Class - Reptilia

Species - Uromastix

Like a typical lizard in appearance

Body is covered with epidermal scales.

Head is small. A pair of eyes and each eye has two movable eyelids.

Mouth is a large anterior opening bounded by upper and lower lips.

Neck is short but has a fold of skin.

Trunk is elongated and bears two pair of limbs, fore and hind limbs.

Tail is elongated and thick.

External features of Uromastix

3/19/26